I. NEW ACTIVITIES

II. OLD ACTIVITIES

a. With further reference to the number of lectures now being given in Phase II, active steps to reduce the total number of lecture hours to thirty-six by reduction of time in one or two of the lectures and by actual elimination of lectures considered as being adequately covered through other means have been taken. In this same connection, the proper balance of reading material and lectures is being examined further and it is hoped that by the end of this year the proper balance will be achieved.

b. [] C/TAB, advised that the list of films now being used will be completed by next week. This should facilitate review of films with respective chief instructors.
